

Updates

San Mateo RCD releases 10,000 coho salmon into Pescadero Creek

Juvenile coho salmon are released into the water

The San Mateo RCD released 10,000 endangered coho salmon into Pescadero Creek in November 2020. The release was a culmination of decades of work to restore the watershed, which could not have supported the salmon otherwise. Community members, federal and

UPDATES

What's New

News & Press

From the Executive Director

Conference

All Updates

MEMBER DASHBOARD ↗

state partners, farmers and ranchers and the RCD all played a part. Watch the beautiful three minute video to see the San Mateo RCD and their partners in action.

Read more about the story in the Half Moon Bay Review and CBS San Francisco Bay Area.

← PREVIOUS

Northern California prescribed-burning community releases video to inspire action

NEXT →

CARCD annual report highlights successes for RCDs and California

FIND YOUR RCD >

801 K Street, MS 14-15
Sacramento, CA 95814

Phone: (916) 457-7904
Fax: (916) 457-7934

MEMBER DASHBOARD >