In accordance with Section 3700 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, notice is hereby given of on August 25, 2026, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara approved the sale of certain tax-defaulted properties.

As a taxing agency and/or revenue district, your agency has the right, pursuant to Sections 3695 and 3695.4 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to object to the County's tax sale of any of the properties on the attached listing that are subject to your special assessment levy.

If your agency objects to the County's sale, you must request and submit a completed application to purchase the tax-defaulted property. When objecting to a sale, be prepared to enter into a Chapter 8 agreement to purchase the property for the minimum bid authorized by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara plus the cost of advertising the sale.

If your agency consents to the sale, the lien for taxes and/or assessments may be canceled by the sale at auction. As a taxing agency, you are entitled to your share of the proceeds (if any) derived from the delinquent tax sale trust fund. If your governing body does not file an objection before the date of sale, the tax agency and/or revenue district will be deemed to have consented to the sale at auction pursuant to Section 3695(a) of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

Properties not purchased through a Chapter 8 agreement will be offered for sale in a Public Internet Auction from October 23, 2026, through October 26, 2026, under provisions of Chapter 7, Revenue and Taxation Code.
